1. How did you hear about The Residency?
2. Describe in your own words how one becomes a believer in Jesus Christ. When and how did that happen in your own life? (Note: this question is also included in the Anchor Christian University application. You may wish to copy/paste your answer from one application into the other.)
3. Why did you decide to apply for The Residency?
4. What do you anticipate will be your greatest challenge in participating in The Residency?
5. As of right now, what are your plans for after The Residency?
6. What's one thing you're passionate about? Why?
7. Describe your thoughts/opinions on:
 - Homosexual Relationships / Marriage
 - Premarital Sex
 - Dating
8. Describe your experience in ministry. What's one element of your ministry experience you are proud of?
9. How have you grown in your spiritual walk over the past two years?

One of the elements of The Residency program is a personalized ministry placement, where the resident will work for approximately 20 hours a week. The placement can be either at Hidden Acres in one of our departments or in a local Evangelical Free church. Residents will be equipped to lead in a setting that fits their gifts, passions, and future career goals.

10. What would your ideal ministry placement look like? Why?
