COURSE STRUCTURE

The courses in The Residency follow Eleven:6's proprietary Learning Blueprint framework, as outlined below.

1.

FRAMING EXERCISES

Residents reflect on their own relevant experience, rewrite the learning objectives to connect to their ministry context, and develop challenge questions that can be answered in their application project.

2.

READING AND RESEARCH

Reading and research assignments are based on the subject background, learning objectives, and challenge questions. These resources and activities are designed as fuel for processing toward actionable conclusions and competency.

3.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

Residents submit at least one journal entry each week for the duration of the course. Journal entries will connect relevant experience with the learning objectives and challenge questions.

4.

APPLICATION PROJECT

Residents will propose and complete a practical application project that adds value to their current or future ministry context from the knowledge and skills acquired via the coursework.

PARTNER SCHOOLS

The mission of Anchor Christian University is to deliver challenging, effective, practical, biblical and professional education to students within the frontline contexts to which they are called. Anchor Christian University is a private, independent university dedicated to building a sustainable model for modern ministry preparation that intentionally involves the local church and other faith-based organizations in the process of growing next generation Christian leaders. As a global learning community, the university is marked by a rigorous integrated learning approach that leads to intellectual, spiritual, and professional skill development.

Anchor Christian University grants degrees under the authority of the Florida State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities in compliance with Section 1005.06(1)(f), Florida Statutes.

For more than 80 years, Clarks Summit University has prepared men and women for Christ-honoring careers and ministries across the globe. Located in the foothills of the endless mountains of Pennsylvania, the university offers programs ranging from a one-year Bible certificate to associate, bachelor's, masters and doctorate degrees. The Word of God is the foundation of their high-quality academic programs and welcoming student community.

Clarks Summit University is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 267.284.5000). Middle States is a regional accrediting agency recognized nationally. All degrees have been approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.
